

Combination Laptop Lock - Ultra

Secures quickly and easily

K64675EU

Product Description

Protect your laptop or Chromebook™ and the private information that's on it with the Combination Laptop Lock with Ultra Cable. The push-button design offers one-handed engagement for easy attachment of the T-Bar™ to the industry-standard Kensington Security Slot™ found on most laptops. The Ultra cable is thicker than the standard cable, offering the highest level of cut-resistance. The lock has a 4-wheel number code that can be set to any of 10,000 possible combinations and is easily resettable. Our web-based Register & Retrieve program offers an easy way to keep track of your combination.
